Art for the Courthouse

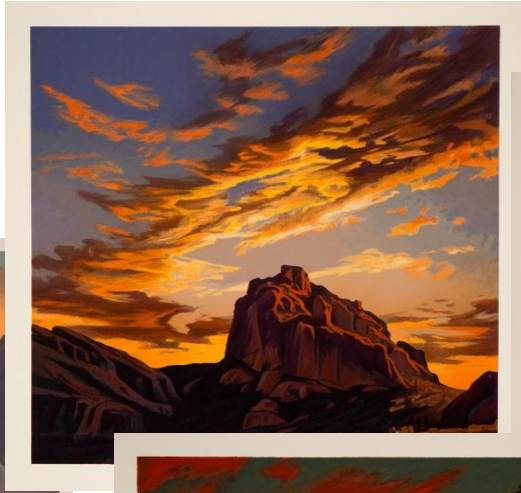

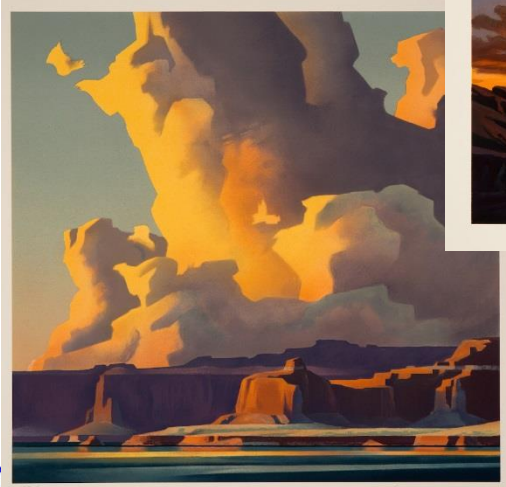

Single Strike by Ed Mell

- Arts Committee acquired on loan two Ed Mell pieces for the courthouse lobby.
- Committee felt the art of Ed Mell is a great fit with the new court décor.
- Purchase of four Ed Mell pieces was put on hold. Cost of four pieces would be approximately $5,500.

Ed Mell Art for Courthouse

School Art Program

- Mayor Collins suggested including our school children be included in our art program.
- Kiva Elementary School was the first to participate and you just saw the amazing art show in the Community Room. It will remain until April 28.
- Other schools who will be invited include Cherokee Elementary School, Phoenix Country Day School, Tesseract, and Montessori.

Stan Ekman Art

Ten pieces of art by Stan Ekman are on display in the Community Room. Jean Adams, his daughter, has loaned them to the Town. Shall the Town purchase this artwork?

Jeff Zischke Art

- In 2007, the Town purchased four sculptures by Jeff Zischke for $20,000
- Mr. Zischke placed a value of the four sculptures at $80,000
- Very suited for our grounds

Stained Glass Panels by Bob Berg

Stained Glass Panels by Bob Berg

- Arts Committee rescued stained glass panels from a hillside home that was being demolished
- Committee made arrangements to donate panels to Phoenix Zoo
- Plaque will outline history of the panels and indicate Town as donor
- Town agreed to pay $2,000 for cost of cleaning, framing, transportation and installation at Zoo's new restaurant
- The Zoo will let Town know when they will be placed

Where is Bear Tracks?

- Last year, Bear Tracks by Dave McGary was relocated to the Scottsdale Museum of the West
- Sculpture had been on loan to the Town for many years
- Residents miss the sculpture and still ask about it – what can the Town do to replace it?
