Professional experience highlights

I was formally an executive at a large public title insurance company. The last 20 years of my career I was an EVP over seeing operations in multiple states with $900m in annual revenue.
I retired in 2019.

What experience do you think qualifies you to be a committee member?

I have executive experience in analyzing situations evaluating and making decisions. I served on the Banner Health Foundation board for several years and other smaller non-profits boards.
