Chuck Matthews, 54, is the Chairman and CEO of WGM Holdings LLC. At WGM, Chuck is responsible for leading and setting the strategic direction of the company and its operating units. WGM provides consulting and managed solutions for IT Infrastructure, Cyber Security, Physical Security, Computer Forensics and Investigative Services. Chuck's 30+-year career includes executive leadership positions in banking, commercial mortgage lending, real estate development, master-planned community technology and software development. In addition to various trade organizations, Chuck serves as second in command of the FBI National Citizens Academy Alumni Association leading the strategic efforts of the community outreach organization nationally in conjunction with FBI HQ. Chuck is a member of Infragard, the FBI's public/private partnership dedicated to sharing information and intelligence to prevent hostile acts against the U.S. Chuck also served two terms as President of the FBI Phoenix Citizens Academy Alumni Association focused on local community outreach. He was elected as a non-profit trustee of Independent NewsMedia USA in 2013. Chuck is a Life Member of the Scottsdale Charros. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from the University of Arizona.

What experience do you think qualifies you to be a committee member?

For the past decade I have been volunteering at the local and national level with the FBI's Community Outreach Program to further the principles of community policing, community outreach and to build the relationship between law enforcement and our communities. I have worked extensively with immigrant communities and communities of color to help establish trust, cooperation and mutual respect with law enforcement. I currently work in guiding 60 chapters of the FBINCAAA across the US in similar goals. I believe my background, experience and skills will contribute to the success of the ACoPS program and the goals the Council has set forth.

The Advisory Committee on Public Safety (ACOPS) has four goals:

1. Promoting resident participation and engagement
2. Engaging the community on public safety issues
3. Receiving presentations and materials from the Paradise Valley Police Department
4. Advising the Mayor and Town Council on Committee activities and recommendations

Please answer the following questions, keeping the response to less than 1000 words total, not for each question. Please return the completed questionnaire to Town Clerk Duncan Miller at dmiller@paradisevalleyaz.gov by Friday, March 3, 2017 at 5:00pm. The current ACOPS members will review your answers to these questions and make a decision on who should be interviewed for the ACOPS vacancy. Interviews will take place on March 14, 2017 during the evening hours.

1. How did you learn about the vacancy on ACOPS?
 - a. I received a call from a friend that is also a town resident letting me know of the opportunity to serve. I have been interested in finding a way to serve in our community which I have enjoyed for more than 22 years.

2. What are the top two or three items you would like to see ACOPS address or continue to do in PV?
 - a. The PVPD Strategic Plan sets forth several effective tactics and programs for encouraging community empowerment that have yet to be implemented. I believe ACOPs can work effectively with the PVPD to assist in the implementation of several key elements. The programs referenced in the Plan such as Citizens Police Academy, the Youth Police Academy and the proposed non-profit foundation are effective parts of community policing at the state local and federal levels used throughout the world. As a graduate of the FBI's Citizen Academy program, I became a member of the non-profit alumni association, which has the mission of encouraging graduates to remain involved and up to date on key issues facing federal law enforcement. The alumni association also serves the same purpose as the proposed Police Foundation, funds itself, and supplements outreach efforts with tax-exempt donations from the community. I believe this could be extremely effective in the Town.

Since graduating, I have volunteered for more than 10 years with the FBI at the state and national level in the leadership of these programs. I currently serve as the SVP (Second in Command) of their FBI National Citizens Academy Alumni Association that oversees and assists with their Citizens Academy programs at each Field Office and the 60 Alumni Association Chapters throughout the nation. I have helped at every stage in forming, managing, operating and administering these Citizens Academy organizations to ensure their alignment with law enforcement objectives and encourage continuing engagement. Each separate organization has a memorandum of understanding (MOU) with their support field office outlining roles and responsibilities to ensure clarity and prevent confusion in roles.

In short, I believe the experience garnered over the past decade will be of help to our community as we move forward in rolling out these programs. ACOPS provides a means for the community to partner with the PVPD in achieving these objectives.

3. What are your suggestions to help ACOPS with effective education, outreach, and enhancement of security?
 - a. As an example, last year I assisted in putting together a partnership between the PVPD and the FBI's Cyber Division to provide education to Town residents on cybercrime and online fraud. The goal of the program was to develop community awareness and help residents improve their security posture. This is intended to be the first in a series of community discussions on the topic. Fraud and cybercrimes are likely the largest unreported source of crime experienced by town residents and a source of fear. I believe ACOPS can work with the PVPD in bringing other businesses and partners to increase awareness, reduce crime, and provide education to help residents better protect themselves in all areas.

4. Do you have any conflicts of interest regarding the PV police department or its volunteers who serve the town?

None.

Respectfully submitted,

Chuck Matthews
