

Below is a summary of the last few amendments approved at El Chorro Lodge:

- May 2015                      Managerial amendment to allow for the placement of amber fairy lights on six trees near the outdoor dining area
- May 2011                      Managerial amendment to replace a portion of the existing decomposed granite parking lot with concrete slab
- September 2010              Minor Amendment to approve temporary tent locations for special events
- May 2010                      Minor amendment to relocate an existing flagpole, provide four chain bollards at the entrance, add five more Jumbrellas and twenty portable umbrellas, install two retractable awnings over the bar windows, allow lantern lights at Casa Paloma, expand private dining area, modify kitchen area, construct entry gates and view fencing, and construct a storage building addition
- February 2010                Minor amendment to allow for Jumbrellas in the outdoor dining area.
- February 2010                Managerial amendment to allow for shading over solar power inverters, installation of seven directional signs, and shading over patio server station
- January 2010                 Managerial amendment to allow for 16 bollard lights along the outside dining area