Hillside Concept Review

Architects Narrative

A residence of approximately 5900 livable square feet plus 4 car garage is proposed to be located on this approximate 1.09-acre site. This lot is currently an unoccupied lot. Historically the lot has not previously been developed.

Unique site conditions include rock outcroppings around the Southern region of the site. Careful placement and shaping of the home preserve this natural feature, nesting the home into its north side such that the home engages and celebrates this natural feature. This placement of the home also shields views of the home from the public street to the south leaving the view of this property from the neighborhood much as it is today.

The form of the proposed residence follows the natural historic slope of the site, cascading down the hillside, unifying the mountain and house as one. The home's design is unique in that the main floor of the home spans across a submerged main entry and garage thus reducing the home's footprint and visual presence while maximizing natural open space.

Materials for the home are to be natural earth-tone colors and finishes including integral colored concrete block with a natural split face finish, dark bronze metal cladding and two tone stucco breaking up the massing of the home. Clear insulated glass is shaded and protected by deep overhangs minimizing reflectivity. The pool fence shall be composed of irregular rebar post (minimum 5' height for pool barrier requirements) naturally blending into the surrounding landscape.
