

POLICE DEPARTMENT JAIL TRANSPORT IGA

- Paradise Valley Officers infrequently transport an arrestee to the MCSO jail
 - 52 arrestees booked in 2019
 - 48 arrestees booked in 2018
- Most Misdemeanors are cited in-lieu of detention

- Transport and jail booking consume 3 to 5 hours of officer time
- This removes the officer from Paradise Valley, creating both manpower and overtime issues

- The City of Scottsdale operates a jail transport van
 - Regular transports of Scottsdale arrestees between MCSO and Scottsdale
 - Staff worked with Scottsdale PD to draft and agreement to provide jail transport service.

- Scottsdale would charge Paradise Valley $219 per transport, with a minimum annual transport of 24 arrestees.
- Each arrestee transported above 24 would also be $219.

- In FY 21-22 $10,000 was budgeted to seek an agreement of this type
- A 24 - transport minimum would cost $5,256
- The $10,000 budgeted would cover approximately 45 transports
